PETITION

COMES NOW plaintiff Kyle Wilson and for his cause of action herein against defendants, and each of them, states as follows:

PARTIES

1. That plaintiff Kyle Wilson is a United States Navy pilot currently residing in California and who was first injured outside the State of Missouri as a result of tortious conduct which occurred in St. Louis County, MO.

2. That defendant The Boeing Company has its principal place of business in the State of Missouri, and further conducts and transacts business as Boeing Defense Space & Security located in St. Louis County, Missouri; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, defendant The Boeing Company was in the business of the design, manufacture, distribution, marketing and sale of aircraft, including but not limited to the F/A-18 E Super Hornet, and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, assembled, marketed, distributed and sold the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, defendant The Boeing Company was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

3. That defendant Boeing Aerospace Operations, Inc., has its principal place of business in the State of Missouri, and further conducts and transacts business as Boeing Defense Space & Security located in St. Louis County, Missouri; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, defendant Boeing Aerospace Operations, Inc., was in the business of the design, manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of aircraft, including but not limited to the F/A-18 E Super Hornet, and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, assembled, marketed, distributed and sold the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, defendant Boeing Aerospace Operations, Inc., was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

4. That defendant Boeing Defense Space & Security has its principal place of business in St. Louis County, Missouri and is a wholly owned subsidiary and/or division of defendants The Boeing Company and Boeing Aerospace Operations, Inc.; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, defendant Boeing Defense Space & Security, was in the business of the design, manufacture, marketing, assembly, distribution and sale of aircraft, including but not limited to the F/A-18 E Super Hornet, and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, assembled, marketed, distributed and sold the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, defendant Boeing Defense Space & Security, was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

5. That at all times relevant herein, defendants The Boeing Company, Boeing Defense Space & Security, and Boeing Aerospace Operations, Inc. (hereinafter collectively "Boeing Defendants") were agents, servants, and employees of one another, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

6. That Defendant Cobham Advanced Electronic Solutions, Inc., is a foreign corporation further doing and conducting business as Cobham Mission Systems, Carleton Life Support Systems, Inc., and Cobham Life Support, and is authorized to do business in the State of Missouri, and conducts business in the State of Missouri; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, this defendant was in the business of the design, manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of On-Board Oxygen Generating Systems (OBOGS) and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, marketed, distributed and/or sold the OBOGS system for the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, this defendant was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

7. That Defendant Carleton Life Support Systems Inc., is a foreign corporation further doing and conducting business as Cobham Mission Systems and is authorized to do business in the State of Missouri, and conducts business in the State of Missouri; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, this defendant was in the business of the design, manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of On-Board Oxygen Generating Systems (OBOGS) and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, marketed, distributed and/or sold the OBOGS system for the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, this defendant was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

8. That Defendant Cobham Management Services Inc., is a foreign corporation further doing and conducting business as Cobham Mission Systems, Carleton Life Support Systems, Inc., and Cobham Life Support, and is authorized to do business in the State of Missouri, and conducts business in the State of Missouri; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, this defendant was in the business of the design, manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of On-Board Oxygen Generating Systems (OBOGS) and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, distributed and/or sold the OBOGS system for the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, this defendant was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

9. That Defendant Carleton Technologies, Inc., is a foreign corporation further doing and conducting business as Cobham Mission Systems and is authorized to do business in the State of Missouri, and conducts business in the State of Missouri; that at all times relevant to this cause of action, this defendant was in the business of the design, manufacture, marketing, distribution and sale of On-Board Oxygen Generating Systems (OBOGS) and in the regular course of its business designed, manufactured, marketed, distributed and/or sold the OBOGS system for the aircraft at issue herein; that at all times mentioned herein, this defendant was operating by and through its agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

10. That at all times relevant herein, defendants Cobham Advanced Electronic Solutions, Inc., Carleton Life Support Systems Inc., Cobham Management Services Inc., and Carleton Technologies, Inc. (hereinafter collectively "Cobham Defendants") were agents, servants, and employees of one another, acting within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

11. That at all times relevant herein, Boeing Defendants and Cobham Defendants were agents, servants, and employees of each other, operating within the scope and course of their agency and/or employment.

12. That venue is proper in St. Louis County, Missouri because the principal places of business of Boeing Defendants are located in St. Louis County, MO; that tortious conduct occurred in St. Louis County, Missouri; that at all relevant times, defendants, and each of them, committed tortious acts within the State of Missouri and transacted business within the State of Missouri for which this cause of action arises; and that defendant Boeing Defense Space & Security's agent for service of process is located in St. Louis County, Missouri pursuant to Section 508.010.5(1) Missouri Revised Statutes.

FACTS COMMON TO ALL COUNTS

13. That plaintiff restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all the allegations in paragraphs one through twelve of this Petition.

14. That on or about May 6 and 7, 2013, plaintiff was operating Boeing Defendants' F/A-18 E Super Hornet aircraft in a reasonably anticipated manner from a United States Naval base in the State of Nevada when he was caused to suffer hypoxia, carbon monoxide exposure, and exposure to other contaminants, while in flight resulting in severe and permanent injuries.

15. That at all relevant times, the Boeing Defendants' F/A 18 E Super Hornet aircraft at issue herein, was designed, manufactured, assembled, marketed, distributed and/or sold by Boeing Defendants exclusively at said defendants' Defense Space & Security headquarters facility in St. Louis County where said defendants employ over 14,000 people; and where said defendants have exclusively designed, manufactured, marketed, assembled, distributed, sold, maintained, modified, and upgraded the F/A 18 E Super Hornet model aircraft for over 20 years.

16. That at all relevant times, the OBOGS system, which included, but not limited to, oxygen concentrator, oxygen regulator, system alarms, and oxygen monitor, on the F/A-18 E Super Hornet at issue herein was designed, manufactured, marketed, distributed and sold by the Cobham Defendants; that said defendants manufactured the OBOGS system at issue herein in or about the year 2011 and sold said OBOGS system to Boeing Defendants in Missouri; that the OBOGS system at issue herein was installed and assembled by defendants, and each of them, in the F/A-18 E Super Hornet aircraft at issue herein at Boeing Defendants' facility in St. Louis County, MO.

17. That plaintiff's aforesaid hypoxia and exposure to carbon monoxide and other contaminants on May 6 and 7, 2013, resulted in permanent brain injury and was caused by the defective condition of F/A-18 E Super Hornet aircraft at issue herein, and its component parts which includes the aforesaid OBOGS system at issue herein.

18. That as a direct result or direct contributing result of the acts and/or conduct of defendants, and each of them, as aforesaid, plaintiff was caused to suffer pain, suffering, embarrassment, inconvenience, loss of flight status, lost job opportunities, lost earning capacity from his gainful employment in reasonable sums, and brain injury; that plaintiff's injuries are permanent; that plaintiff was caused to undergo necessary and extensive hospital, medical, therapeutic care, treatment, and rehabilitation, and will continue to undergo same in the future, and has incurred substantial expenses, in reasonable true value amounts, for said hospital, medical, therapeutic care, treatment, and rehabilitation and will continue to incur such expenses in the future; that the injuries and damages of the plaintiff are in excess of Twenty Five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00).

19. That by reason of combined acts and or conduct of defendants, and each of them, aforesaid, which was outrageous and showed complete indifference to and/or conscious disregard for the safety of plaintiff and others, and punitive damages should be awarded in such sum as will serve to punish defendants, and each of them, and deter defendants and others from like conduct in the future; that plaintiff is entitled to recover punitive damages.

20. That plaintiff is entitled to prejudgment interest.

COUNT I – NEGLIGENCE

Comes now plaintiff and for his cause of action against the defendants, and each of them, state:

21. That plaintiff restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all the allegations in paragraphs one through twenty of this Petition.

22. That defendants, and each of them, were negligent in the manufacture, design, sale, distribution, installation, assembly, maintenance, service, testing, marketing and instruction of the aforesaid F/A-18 E Super Hornet and OBOGS system at issue herein; that the aforesaid negligence of defendants, and each of them, combined, concurred, and contributed directly and proximately to cause injuries and damages to plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment, in favor of plaintiff and against defendants, and each of them, for compensatory damages in an amount that is fair and just, for punitive damages, for prejudgment interest, for his court costs, and for such other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT II – STRICT LIABILITY PRODUCT DEFECT

Comes now plaintiff and for his cause of action against the defendants, and each of them, state:

23. That plaintiff restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all the allegations in paragraphs one through twenty-two of this Petition.

24. That at the time defendants, and each of them, designed, manufactured, distributed, installed, assembled, marketed and sold the aforesaid F/A-18 E Super Hornet and OBOGS system at issue herein, said products were then in a defective condition unreasonably dangerous when put to a reasonably anticipated use, and plaintiff was damaged as a direct result or direct contributing result of such defective condition as existed when the aforesaid products were sold.

25. That the aforesaid conduct of defendants, and each of them, combined, concurred, and contributed directly and proximately, and joint and severally, to cause plaintiff's injuries and damages.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment, in favor of plaintiff and against defendants, and each of them, for compensatory damages in an amount that is fair and just, for punitive damages, for prejudgment interest, for his court costs, and for such other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT III – STRICT LIABILITY FAILURE TO WARN

Comes now plaintiff and for his cause of action against the defendants, and each of them, state:

26. That plaintiff restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all the allegations in paragraphs one through twenty-five of this Petition.

27. That at the time defendants, and each of them, designed, manufactured, distributed, installed, assembled, marketed and sold the aforesaid F/A-18 E Super Hornet and OBOGS system at issue herein, said products were then in a defective condition unreasonably dangerous when put to a reasonably anticipated use without knowledge of its characteristics, and defendants, and each of them, did not give adequate warning of the danger, and as a direct result or direct contributing result of the aforesaid products being sold without adequate warning, plaintiff suffered injuries and damages.

28. That the aforesaid conduct of defendants, and each of them, combined, concurred, and contributed directly and proximately, and joint and severally, to cause plaintiff's injuries and damages.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment, in favor of plaintiff and against defendants, and each of them, for compensatory damages in an amount that is fair and just, for punitive damages, for prejudgment interest, for his court costs, and for such other relief this Court deems just and proper.

COUNT IV - PRODUCT LIABILITY, NEGLIGENT MANUFACTURE, DESIGN, WARN

Comes now plaintiff and for his cause of action against the defendants, and each of them, state:

29. That plaintiff restates, realleges and incorporates by reference all the allegations in paragraphs one through twenty-eight of this Petition.

30. That defendants, and each of them, failed to use ordinary care to either manufacture or design the aforesaid F/A-18 E Super Hornet and OBOGS system at issue herein to be reasonably safe or to adequately warn of the risk of harm from carbon monoxide poisoning, oxygen deprivation, and exposure to contaminants while in flight, and as a direct result or direct contributing result of such failure, plaintiff suffered injuries and damages.

31. That the aforesaid conduct of defendants, and each of them, combined, concurred, and contributed directly and proximately, and joint and severally, to cause plaintiff's injuries and damages.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff prays for judgment, in favor of plaintiff and against defendants, and each of them, for compensatory damages in an amount that is fair and just, for punitive damages, for prejudgment interest, for his court costs, and for such other relief this Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE OF ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SERVICES

Purpose of Notice

As a party to a lawsuit in this court, you have the right to have a judge or jury decide your case. However, most lawsuits are settled by the parties before a trial takes place. This is often true even when the parties initially believe that settlement is not possible. A settlement reduces the expense and inconvenience of litigation. It also eliminates any uncertainty about the results of a trial.

Alternative dispute resolution services and procedures are available that may help the parties settle their lawsuit faster and at less cost. Often such services are most effective in reducing costs if used early in the course of a lawsuit. Your attorney can aid you in deciding whether and when such services would be helpful in your case.

Your Rights and Obligations in Court Are Not Affected By This Notice

You may decide to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure if the other parties to your case agree to do so. In some circumstances, a judge of this court may refer your case to an alternative dispute resolution procedure described below. These procedures are not a substitute for the services of a lawyer and consultation with a lawyer is recommended. Because you are a party to a lawsuit, you have obligations and deadlines which must be followed whether you use an alternative dispute resolution procedure or not. IF YOU HAVE BEEN SERVED WITH A PETITION, YOU MUST FILE A RESPONSE ON TIME TO AVOID THE RISK OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT, WHETHER OR NOT YOU CHOOSE TO PURSUE AN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures

There are several procedures designed to help parties settle lawsuits. Most of these procedures involve the services of a neutral third party, often referred to as the "neutral," who is trained in dispute resolution and is not partial to any party. The services are provided by individuals and organizations who may charge a fee for this help. Some of the recognized alternative dispute resolutions procedures are:

(1) Advisory Arbitration: A procedure in which a neutral person or persons (typically one person or a panel of three persons) hears both sides and decides the case. The arbitrator's decision is not binding and simply serves to guide the parties in trying to settle their lawsuit. An arbitration is typically less formal than a trial, is usually shorter, and may be conducted in a private setting at a time mutually agreeable to the parties. The parties, by agreement, may select the arbitrator(s) and determine the rules under which the arbitration will be conducted.

(2) Mediation: A process in which a neutral third party facilitates communication between the parties to promote settlement. An effective mediator may offer solutions that have not been considered by the parties or their lawyers. A mediator may not impose his or her own judgment on the issues for that of the parties.

(3) Early Neutral Evaluation ("ENE"): A process designed to bring the parties to the litigation and their counsel together in the early pretrial period to present case summaries before and receive a non-binding assessment from an experienced neutral evaluator. The objective is to promote early and meaningful communication concerning disputes, enabling parties to plan their cases effectively and assess realistically the relative strengths and weaknesses of their positions. While this confidential environment provides an opportunity to negotiate a resolution, immediate settlement is not the primary purpose of this process.

(4) Mini-Trial: A process in which each party and their counsel present their case before a selected representative for each party and a neutral third party, to define the issues and develop a basis for realistic settlement negotiations. The neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion regarding the merits of the case. The advisory opinion is not binding.

(5) Summary Jury Trial: A summary jury trial is a non binding, informal settlement process in which jurors hear abbreviated case presentations. A judge or neutral presides over the hearing, but there are no witnesses and the rules of evidence are relaxed. After the "trial", the jurors retire to deliberate and then deliver an advisory verdict. The verdict then becomes the starting point for settlement negotiations among the parties.

Selecting an Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedure and a Neutral

If the parties agree to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure, they must decide what type of procedure to use and the identity of the neutral. As a public service, the St. Louis County Circuit Clerk maintains a list of persons who are available to serve as neutrals. The list contains the names of individuals who have met qualifications established by the Missouri Supreme Court and have asked to be on the list. The Circuit Clerk also has Neutral Qualifications Forms on file. These forms have been submitted by the neutrals on the list and provide information on their background and expertise. They also indicate the types of alternative dispute resolution services each neutral provides.

A copy of the list may be obtained by request in person and in writing to: Circuit Clerk, Office of Dispute Resolution Services, 105 South Central Ave., 5th Floor, Clayton, Missouri 63105. The Neutral Qualifications Forms will also be made available for inspection upon request to the Circuit Clerk.

The List and Neutral Qualification Forms are provided only as a convenience to the parties in selecting a neutral. The court cannot advise you on legal matters and can only provide you with the List and Forms. You should ask your lawyer for further information.

It also eliminates any uncertainty about the results of a trial.

Alternative dispute resolution services and procedures are available that may help the parties settle their lawsuit faster and at less cost. Often such services are most effective in reducing costs if used early in the course of a lawsuit. Your attorney can aid you in deciding whether and when such services would be helpful in your case.

Your Rights and Obligations in Court Are Not Affected By This Notice

You may decide to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure if the other parties to your case agree to do so. In some circumstances, a judge of this court may refer your case to an alternative dispute resolution procedure described below. These procedures are not a substitute for the services of a lawyer and consultation with a lawyer is recommended. Because you are a party to a lawsuit, you have obligations and deadlines which must be followed whether you use an alternative dispute resolution procedure or not. IF YOU HAVE BEEN SERVED WITH A PETITION, YOU MUST FILE A RESPONSE ON TIME TO AVOID THE RISK OF DEFAULT JUDGMENT, WHETHER OR NOT YOU CHOOSE TO PURSUE AN ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION PROCEDURE.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures

There are several procedures designed to help parties settle lawsuits. Most of these procedures involve the services of a neutral third party, often referred to as the "neutral," who is trained in dispute resolution and is not partial to any party. The services are provided by individuals and organizations who may charge a fee for this help. Some of the recognized alternative dispute resolutions procedures are:

(1) Advisory Arbitration: A procedure in which a neutral person or persons (typically one person or a panel of three persons) hears both sides and decides the case. The arbitrator's decision is not binding and simply serves to guide the parties in trying to settle their lawsuit. An arbitration is typically less formal than a trial, is usually shorter, and may be conducted in a private setting at a time mutually agreeable to the parties. The parties, by agreement, may select the arbitrator(s) and determine the rules under which the arbitration will be conducted.

(2) Mediation: A process in which a neutral third party facilitates communication between the parties to promote settlement. An effective mediator may offer solutions that have not been considered by the parties or their lawyers. A mediator may not impose his or her own judgment on the issues for that of the parties.

(3) Early Neutral Evaluation ("ENE"): A process designed to bring the parties to the litigation and their counsel together in the early pretrial period to present case summaries before and receive a non-binding assessment from an experienced neutral evaluator. The objective is to promote early and meaningful communication concerning disputes, enabling parties to plan their cases effectively and assess realistically the relative strengths and weaknesses of their positions. While this confidential environment provides an opportunity to negotiate a resolution, immediate settlement is not the primary purpose of this process.

(4) Mini-Trial: A process in which each party and their counsel present their case before a selected representative for each party and a neutral third party, to define the issues and develop a basis for realistic settlement negotiations. The neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion regarding the merits of the case. The advisory opinion is not binding.

(5) Summary Jury Trial: A summary jury trial is a non binding, informal settlement process in which jurors hear abbreviated case presentations. A judge or neutral presides over the hearing, but there are no witnesses and the rules of evidence are relaxed. After the "trial", the jurors retire to deliberate and then deliver an advisory verdict. The verdict then becomes the starting point for settlement negotiations among the parties.

Selecting an Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedure and a Neutral

If the parties agree to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure, they must decide what type of procedure to use and the identity of the neutral. As a public service, the St. Louis County Circuit Clerk maintains a list of persons who are available to serve as neutrals. The list contains the names of individuals who have met qualifications established by the Missouri Supreme Court and have asked to be on the list. The Circuit Clerk also has Neutral Qualifications Forms on file. These forms have been submitted by the neutrals on the list and provide information on their background and expertise. They also indicate the types of alternative dispute resolution services each neutral provides.

A copy of the list may be obtained by request in person and in writing to: Circuit Clerk, Office of Dispute Resolution Services, 105 South Central Ave., 5th Floor, Clayton, Missouri 63105. The Neutral Qualifications Forms will also be made available for inspection upon request to the Circuit Clerk.

The List and Neutral Qualification Forms are provided only as a convenience to the parties in selecting a neutral. The court cannot advise you on legal matters and can only provide you with the List and Forms. You should ask your lawyer for further information.

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion and/or petition must be served on each Defendant/Respondent. If any Defendant/Respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion and/or petition when offered to him, the return shall be prepared to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and/or petition and the Defendant's/Respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age, or by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the Defendant/Respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. On a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory in the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The officer making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must not be made less than ten days nor more than sixty days from the date the Defendant/Respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri Court within 30 days after service.

(3) Early Neutral Evaluation (“ENE”): A process designed to bring the parties to the litigation and their counsel together in the early pretrial period to present case summaries before and receive a non-binding assessment from an experienced neutral evaluator. The objective is to promote early and meaningful communication concerning disputes, enabling parties to plan their cases effectively and assess realistically the relative strengths and weaknesses of their positions. While this confidential environment provides an opportunity to negotiate a resolution, immediate settlement is not the primary purpose of this process.

(4) Mini-Trial: A process in which each party and their counsel present their case before a selected representative for each party and a neutral third party, to define the issues and develop a basis for realistic settlement negotiations. The neutral third party may issue an advisory opinion regarding the merits of the case. The advisory opinion is not binding.

(5) Summary Jury Trial: A summary jury trial is a non binding, informal settlement process in which jurors hear abbreviated case presentations. A judge or neutral presides over the hearing, but there are no witnesses and the rules of evidence are relaxed. After the “trial”, the jurors retire to deliberate and then deliver an advisory verdict. The verdict then becomes the starting point for settlement negotiations among the parties.

Selecting an Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedure and a Neutral

If the parties agree to use an alternative dispute resolution procedure, they must decide what type of procedure to use and the identity of the neutral. As a public service, the St. Louis County Circuit Clerk maintains a list of persons who are available to serve as neutrals. The list contains the names of individuals who have met qualifications established by the Missouri Supreme Court and have asked to be on the list. The Circuit Clerk also has Neutral Qualifications Forms on file. These forms have been submitted by the neutrals on the list and provide information on their background and expertise. They also indicate the types of alternative dispute resolution services each neutral provides.

A copy of the list may be obtained by request in person and in writing to: Circuit Clerk, Office of Dispute Resolution Services, 7900 Carondelet Avenue, 5th Floor, Clayton, Missouri 63105. The Neutral Qualifications Forms will also be made available for inspection upon request to the Circuit Clerk.

The List and Neutral Qualification Forms are provided only as a convenience to the parties in selecting a neutral. The court cannot advise you on legal matters and can only provide you with the List and Forms. You should ask your lawyer for further information.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion and/or petition must be served on each Defendant/Respondent. If any Defendant/Respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion and/or petition when offered to him, the return shall be prepared to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and/or petition and the Defendant's/Respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age, or by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion and/or petition to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the Defendant/Respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. On a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory in the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The officer making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must not be made less than ten days nor more than sixty days from the date the Defendant/Respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri Court within 30 days after service.
